EX OFFICERS OF KLAN GET ORDER OF BANISHMENT

Emperor and Former Acting Wizard Re- moved from Order

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 11. (AP)—William Joseph Simmons, founder and emperor of the Ku Klux Klan and Edward Young Clarke, at one time acting imperial wizard of the organization, have been banished from the order for their active opposition to the regime headed by Dr. H. W. Evans, imperial wizard, it was announced here today in Klan circles.

In a statement issued here, Clarke declared he was not surprised at the development declaring the attempt was made because Evans and his associates are desperate and realize it is only a short time they will be able to hold the reins of the organization and trample in the dust all the foundation principles and ideals of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

He declared that neither Dr. Evans nor the imperial klownium nor the body of dragons has the legal right to banish either himself or Emperor Simmons, and asserted that the real reason for the attempted banishment was an effort to stop the gatherings of klans at the national congress which he has called to meet in Atlanta, February 26.

The Klan official said he would make a "regular formal appeal against the banishment thru the regular courts or the order and then to civil courts of this state if it becomes necessary."

It was stated that the banishment was made after grand dragons representing every state in the union had met in Washington two days ago and signed charges against the two officials.

A copy of these charges was in the hands of Mr. Clarke early today.

The order it is understood charged Clarke with actively attempting to disrupt the organization and "slandering himself with enemies of the order and bringing it into disrepute."

Members of the Simmons faction stated today that the imperial headquarters of the Klan had been moved from here to Washington. This was denied by imperial officials here and those representing the order in the nation's capital.

RESTRICTIONS MADE IN IMMIGRATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Restriction of immigration to this country on a basis of two per cent of the foreign citizens of each country here in 1890 with an annual minimum quota of 200 for each nation was voted today by the house immigration committee in drafting a new bill.

The present law, which expires next June 30, restricts immigration to three percent of the foreign born of each nation here in 1910. The restriction voted today would cut by more than half the present quotas of many countries, affecting most severely the Southern and Eastern European countries.

THE DAY IN WASHINGTON

The house used time for general debate on the interior appropriation bill to discuss prohibition.

Senator James E. Watson of Indiana, announced he would not seek the Republican presidential nomination.

Director Hines announced a general re-organization of the administrative machinery of the Veterans bureau.

Agriculture committees of both senate and house heard pleas for help for the farmers.

A senate sub-committee headed by Senator Borah was named to conduct hearings on Russian recognition.

The house foreign affairs committee postponed indefinitely action on a resolution to prohibit sales of war material to foreign governments.

Chairman Smith of the senate interstate commerce committee issued a statement urging co-operation to reduce excessive freight rates.

Administration leaders began plans looking to the creation of an agency to deal with officers for Muscle Shoals.

Republican house leaders dealing with tax legislation conferred on the question of what changes should be made in the Mellon bill to assure its passage.

EMERGENCY AID FOR FARMERS CONSIDERED BY BOTH COMMITTEES

Ninety Per Cent of Northwest Farms Reported
Mortgaged

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Legislation designed to give emergency aid to American farmers was considered today by both the senate and house agriculture committees the witnesses in both cases being representatives of the great northwestern wheat sections.

The bills under discussion were the Norris-Sinclair bill, proposing a $100,000,000 corporation to deal in farm products and the Burton bill which would create a fund of $50,000,000 to finance a change to diversified farming.

John H. Hagan, state inspector of grades, weights and measures of North Dakota told the senate committee that planters in the spring wheat belt have sustained an average loss of $5 an acre for each of the last five years, and other witnesses from that state described a survey which indicated that nearly 90 percent of the farms now carry mortgages or other lien liabilities.

Benefits which would accrue from comparatively small loans for purchase of livestock and poultry were outlined by President John Lee Coulter of the North Dakota State college who said he had canvassed fruitlessly all existing agencies which might be expected to finance these operations.

Before the house committee, P. E. Miller of the University of Minnesota declared wheat farmers have not only exhausted their credit but also the vitality of their farms so that their economy is doubtful unless federal aid is given.

FEDERAL AGENTS TO MAKE ALL RAIDS IN LIQUOR VIOLATIONS

Order Directs Citizens to Cease All Activities

MARION, Ill., Jan. 11. (A.P.)—Definite notice that all raids in the future to be conducted in Williamson county will be made exclusively by regular federal agents, was brought by a squad of federal enforcement officials who arrived here today. According to general prohibition agent J. R. Loeffler, the order directing citizens of Marion to cease their activities in liquor raids was issued by Division Chief W. H. Anderson.

This order deposes S. Glenn Young, dry worker in the three raids and deputized federal officials according to Loeffler.

When informed of the announcement by federal officials taking from the local citizens their authority to conduct raids Sheriff George Galligan said:

"It seems Young (Glenn Young) has double-crossed his boss."

This statement the sheriff explained by saying that with the disappearance of Young, Victor Armitage, prohibition agent, who swore him in is placed in an embarrassing position.

MILK SHIPMENTS FROM OUTLYING POINTS STOPPED

Mob of Producers at Wauconda Repulsed by Steam Hose

CHICAGO, Jan. 11. (AP)—Shipments of milk from sources outside the District normally shipping to Chicago, which have been restored to because of a dispute between the producers and distributors over the producers' price, must cease forthwith, Health Commissioner John N. Bundesen M. D. ruled today.

The ruling cuts off the emergency supply coming from Detroit, Cleveland, Dubuque, Iowa, Akron, Ohio, Fond Du Lac, Wis., and Brown county, Wisconsin.

Dr. Bundesen explained that the ruling was made because of reports received from reliable and neutral sources of a scarlet fever epidemic in Fond Du Lac and in Brown county and in view of the statements made to the department by distributors that they could get all the milk necessary with some inconvenience, from their regular territory.

Fond Du Lac, Wis., Jan. 11.—That Chicago authorities clamped the lid on Fond Du Lac milk for reasons other than health, was the opinion voiced here tonight.

"There is not a single case of scarlet fever in Fond Du Lac and Fond Du Lac county and the action of the Chicago health authorities is unjust," said the health commissioner of Fond Du Lac when informed of the Chicago commissioner's action.

Waukegan, Ill., Jan. 11.—A score of milk producers who rushed to the distributing plant of the Bowman Dairy company, Waukegan, storm center of the milk strike in Lake county were repulsed with steam today. Employees of the plant turned a steam hose used in sterilizing milk containers upon them and the producers were compelled to fall back.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Jan. 11.—Louis Ausenkant of Sidney, Ill., 55 years old, night stoker in the Wabash roundhouse here, was killed tonight about 7 o'clock on a siding near the main engine house. The accident occurred when Engineer Charles G. Whipple of Champaign, ran his engine on to the siding for the night.

Engineer Whipple was not aware of having struck Ausenkant and put his engine away and went home. This developed after he was notified by the coroner's office of the accident. About half an hour after the engine hit the stoker a young man whose name could not be learned found the mangled body about 15 feet from the switch engine. He told Deputy Coroner J. A. Sturdyvin that he was walking along the tracks and stumbled over the badly mangled body.

An inquest will be held tomorrow.

BUSINESS PROSPECTS GOOD SAYS MR. BAEHR

Manager of Illinois Power and Light Corporation Looks
With Confidence on Coming Months.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 11.—There is every reason to believe that business generally will prosper in 1924, particularly in the states of the Middle West, according to William A. Baehr, vice-president and general manager of the Illinois Power and Light Corporation.

"In spite of this being a presidential year, I believe it will be a good one for the public utility companies and industry in general," Mr. Baehr said here today in an interview.

"Business seems to be strongly entrenched. Credit conditions are good. The banking situation is generally sound and the prospects now, at the dawn of the new year, appear exceptionally bright."

"I believe that the people of this area will be prosperous, which means that our company, the Illinois Power and Light Corporation, with utility companies operating in some 350 municipalities of the Mississippi Valley, will also be prosperous. In the same degree the people of these communities prosper, the company will prosper."

"Hundreds of our consumers, as well as employees of the company, have purchased stock in the Illinois Power and Light Corporation, making one of the best stabilizing forces of the industry. More will do so. These investors are not only placing capital in the hands of the company, which greatly hastens development of utility properties, but they are investing their money in a home industry and helping to build up their own community into a thriving and prosperous village or town."

"I look for a great year in building and improvement in the public utility business, which means not only steady employment for wage earners, but also earning power for the savings in the thrift communities invested in the properties that are serving the territory."

Klan Members Refuse Disarmament Request

HERRIN, Ill., Jan. 11. (A.P.)—Troops remained in Williamson county tonight because an alleged member of the Ku Klux Klan refused to respect the request of Sam Sterns, exalted cyclops, that all klansmen in Herrin disarm. Sheriff George Galligan had agreed to request recall of the troops if the citizen-raiders would give up their arms, and Cyclops Sterns immediately got busy in an effort to have revoked the arms permits of 200 alleged klansmen.

Sterns, however, was blocked in his initial effort, when Justice of the Peace Wilfred F. Keaster, the first man he approached refused to withdraw the permits.

"I'm the only person who can recall them, am I not?" the justice asked, "and I won't."

"Those fellows' lives are in danger. There's a gun on 50 hips in Herrin just waiting for a good chance to pop at 'em," Sterns said. "I have done all I could and have failed."

This means that troops will remain indefinitely, Chief Deputy Sheriff John Layman asserted, explaining that Sheriff Galligan had insisted that the "other side disarm" before asking the recall of the militiamen.

Sterns expressed himself as keenly disappointed.

"The other side has completely disarmed," he told the justice, "and your chief klansmen has promised disarmament on your side, to bring peace and complete harmony, and you are blocking it."

Mr. Layman, who accompanied Mr. Sterns to the office of Justice Keaster, asked that the justice show all arms permits he issued. The justice handed over the list, showing 18 had been issued. Mr. Layman alleged the permits were irregular, saying the reasons given were for self-protection and "threats on my life" adding that the state law requires that the reason be specific.

Mr. Layman said that Mr. Sterns did all he could and he declared the burden of restoring harmony is now shifted to the shoulders of the Klan as a result of this development.

Butler, campaign manager for President Coolidge, and was followed almost immediately by an announcement by Mr. Butler of the appointment of Ewing Emison of Vincennes, as the Coolidge campaign manager in Indiana.

Mr. Emison, a member of the state central committee was proposed by Clyde A. Walb, Indiana state chairman, and was said to be acceptable to all Indiana Republican leaders including Senator Watson and Postmaster General New, assuring unity of the Republican organization forces behind Mr. Coolidge's candidacy.

President Coolidge will be entered in the Indiana presidential preference primary, according to state leaders who have been conferring here for several days in connection with the plans of Senator Watson and the appointment of a Coolidge manager for Indiana. With Senator Watson out of the race, the Indiana Republican primary contest it is expected will be between the President and Senator Johnson. The latter has said he would enter every possible Republican primary and is fighting for the Indiana delegation.

END OF SUB CREW BELIEVED MERCIFUL

PORTLAND, England, Jan. 11.—(A.P.)—Divers made a number of unsuccessful efforts off Portland Bill this afternoon to learn whether an object located in thirty fathoms of water is the British submarine L-24 which sank yesterday after a collision with the Dreadnaught Resolution.

WILL VETO MELLON BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Realizing that modifications probably must be made in the Mellon tax bill if it is to command a majority in the house, Republican members of the ways and means committee discussed the question today with Representative Longworth, the party leader.

The conference lasted several hours, but those who participated declined to disclose what had transpired other than to say "discussion had been general and related solely to procedure."

Proposed changes in taxes, it was said, were not considered, and no decisions were reached.

Mr. Longworth, who led the fight to have the ways and means committee report a tax bill by February 11, has expressed the opinion that there must be compromises to meet the demands of the various elements of the Republican party.

Conferences "for the purpose of being helpful" are to be held by President Coolidge with senate and house Republican leaders during congressional consideration of the tax legislation.

Will Veto Bonus

The executive held one of these conferences today with Chairman Smoot, of the senate finance committee, who reported on senate sentiment for the Mellon tax reduction plan against soldier bonus legislation. The nature of Senator Smoot's report was not disclosed but it was indicated that President Coolidge regarded it as encouraging. The president made it clear to visitors today, that he would make no announcements anticipating action by him on bonus legislation but would stand on his declaration against the bonus measure. His discussion of the matter through brief, but no doubt in the minds of his visitors, however, as to his determination to veto any bonus bill that may be passed by congress.

Refusal of any considerable number of Republicans in the house to support the administration tax program, party leaders admitted today, might insure the success of the plan sponsored by Senator Garner and his Democratic colleagues on the ways and means committee. If concessions were made before the bill reaches the floor, it was contended, the Republicans would be more likely to present a front solid enough to defeat amendments offered by the Democrats.

SURTAX RATE DRASTIC

A number of Republicans who are members of the farm bloc have declared that the Mellon proposal to cut in half the present fifty per cent surtax maximum is too drastic, and that a maximum of at least 35 per cent should be provided for in the bill. The Democratic maximum is 44 per cent on incomes in excess of $2,000.

The surtax schedule leaders generally admitted is the point on which Republicans are most likely to split.

Previous to the conference of Republican members today, the ways and means committee met to continue its consideration of administrative provisions of the Mellon bill which it hopes to complete tomorrow. The committee decided to hold public hearings on taxation, beginning Monday. After the hearings are completed proposed changes in tax schedules will be taken up, with the committee instructed by last night's conference of house Republicans to report the bill by February 11.

The instructions also provided that the committee shall proceed to consider bonus legislation. Those advocating action on the bonus bill expressed confidence that a favorable report would be ordered in a week or ten days after the tax bill reaches the house.

OBJECTIONS MADE BY WESTERN CITIES TO CONSOLIDATION PLAN

Claim Grouping of Railroads
Would Hinder Business

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. (AP)—Federal plans for railroad consolidation were attacked before the interstate commerce commission today by Clyde M. Reed, chairman of the Kansas Utilities commission. Speaking not only for his state, but also as special representative for St. Joseph and Kansas City, Mo., and Omaha and Lincoln, Nebraska, and Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Sioux City, Iowa, he declared that the Missouri Valley residents were "substantially unanimously" opposed to the wholesale consolidation of railroads.

The general proposals of the consolidation scheme had the effect, Mr. Reed concluded, of tearing each and every terminal now existing on the Missouri River out by the roots and moving it 500 miles farther away from the producing regions.

The consideration and framing of the consolidation he declared had been carried on exclusively of the right of "controversy between the railroads as to what particular properties they will or will not be consolidated with," and the views of "individual cities as to the effect of railroad disposition upon their own destiny."

The larger public interests of regions and marketing areas, he contended, would lose by adjustments made in any such limited manner.

Members of the Pennsylvania house delegation today took a part in the arguments by adopting a resolution expressing the sense of 24 of their number that the Philadelphia and Reading railroad be left independent in the consolidation plan and not joined with either the New York Central or the Baltimore and Ohio. Fred H. Wood, counsel for the Southern Pacific also appeared before the commission for that road and expressed general approval of the commission plan to consolidate that line with the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific.

His discussion of the matter through brief, but no doubt in the minds of his visitors, however, as to his determination to veto any bonus bill that may be passed by congress.

Refusal of any considerable number of Republicans in the house to support the administration tax program, party leaders admitted today, might insure the success of the plan sponsored by Senator Garner and his Democratic colleagues on the ways and means committee. If concessions were made before the bill reaches the floor, it was contended, the Republicans would be more likely to present a front solid enough to defeat amendments offered by the Democrats.

SURTAX RATE DRASTIC

A number of Republicans who are members of the farm bloc have declared that the Mellon proposal to cut in half the present fifty per cent surtax maximum is too drastic, and that a maximum of at least 35 per cent should be provided for in the bill. The Democratic maximum is 44 per cent on incomes in excess of $2,000.

The surtax schedule leaders generally admitted is the point on which Republicans are most likely to split.

Previous to the conference of Republican members today, the ways and means committee met to continue its consideration of administrative provisions of the Mellon bill which it hopes to complete tomorrow. The committee decided to hold public hearings on taxation, beginning Monday. After the hearings are completed proposed changes in tax schedules will be taken up, with the committee instructed by last night's conference of house Republicans to report the bill by February 11.

The instructions also provided that the committee shall proceed to consider bonus legislation. Those advocating action on the bonus bill expressed confidence that a favorable report would be ordered in a week or ten days after the tax bill reaches the house.

A THOUGHT

Who is this that darkenseth the earth by words without knowledge?—Job 38:2.

As it is the mark of great minds to say many things in a few words so it is that of little minds to use many words to say nothing.—La Rochefoucauld.

Unfilled orders of the U. S. steel corporation are now larger than at any time for months past. Steel is often said to be a barometer of business, and so here is another indication that 1924 is going to be satisfactory from a business standpoint.

Senator Reed has said that he is in favor of a constitutional amendment which will tax government bonds and securities that have been tax exempt. However, the Missouri senator is more discreet than some public officials, and he qualified the statement with "If I do not change my mind."

There is more complaint about federal income taxes than any other form of tax. These complaints are not so much because of the amounts paid but from the fact that forms and rules are so complicated that few people are able to make out their tax return in proper form. There is still a worse feature, that they cannot tell until several years after payment whether or not the government is satisfied with the report made, and a department auditor may at any time notify them of additional tax due.

Wayne Williams is another Morgan county man who has come into prominence in another locality. Mr. Williams, who spent his boyhood in the Joy Prairie neighborhood and later attended Illinois college, has been a resident in Colorado for a number of years. He is prominent there in politics and there is now every prospect that he will be the next Republican nominee for governor.

Some records show in 15 states eight and a half percent of farmers who bought land along about 1920 lost their property and went into bankruptcy. This sounds bad but not so bad when it is remembered that other statistics show that 95 percent of the men who engage in business fail.

Governor Pinchot, it is said, is still considering the question of known as an active candidate for the presidency. The governor has a splendid record in most respects but he did not add to his national prestige or popularity when he settled the anthracite strike in a way which immediately caused an increase in cost of 75 cents per ton to the consumer.

HENRY VAN LOON AND THE BIBLE

Dr. Henry Van Loon has written the Story of the Bible. He tells the familiar stories of the Old and New Testament in a thoroughly modern style, adapted for reading by children. He believes that children cannot be thoroughly educated without knowing these stories, which is very true. But it is evident from Van Loon's attitude that he believes they are only stories and have no particular moral or religious significance which is not true. Aside from the authenticity of the historic facts conveyed by the Bible narratives each of them has its own lesson to impart to the reader. They were written with that in mind. Anyone who is looking for nothing more than facts will have a difficult time finding them in the dim and ancient past, look where he may. Meaning of historical events from a religious and moral standpoint, he can find no better informant than the Bible stories.

ABOLISH AMUSEMENT TAXES

The provision in the tax reduction plan of Secretary Mellon providing for the repeal of admission taxes has very general approval. In his message to congress President Coolidge said: "The amusement and educational value of moving pictures ought not to be taxed." Statistics amply show that the heavy percent of admission tax is paid by people who patronize the neighborhood theatres in the larger cities and the general moving picture theatres in the smaller cities, and to whom the picture theatre affords the main recreation.

The moving picture now has such a large place in public life that it ranks as a necessity, while it may be legitimate to tax necessities in war times, certainly such taxes should be abolished in the after war days.

Aside from affording recreation films today have a very large place in educational work. The amusement tax readily heads the list of the so-called nuisance taxes and the sentiment for its repeal is widespread.

FARM WAGES NEAR

Do you want a nice job, very hard labor, 10 hours or more a day, said job paying $33.18 a month with meals included—or $46.91 without board?

These were the average wages paid to farmhands in the United States during 1923, according to the Department of Agriculture. If you want to compare this with former years, here's the information showing average monthly farm wages for male labor:

Year	With Board	Without Board
1923.....	$33.18	$46.91
1922.....	29.17	41.79
1914.....	21.05	29.85

"The peak year in wages of farm labor in recent years was 1920," the department reports. "The deflation of general prices then began and farm wage rates continued to decline until the fall of 1923, when an upward trend developed."

We print these farm wage figures because it is extremely important for the city man to appreciate conditions on farms, as compared with prosperity in cities. On the other side, while the average farmhand in 1923 got only $33.18 a month, this included board and room. It depends on the cook, but it'd cost a lot to duplicate farm meals in cities—not to mention the matter of room rent.

The city man, who has only $33.18 a month left after paying for his personal meals and lodgings, can stop his car (if he has one) at the next farm and shake hands with the hired man.

Without board, the average farmhand got only $46.91 a month last year. We wonder how many city men are working for that. A lot more than the prosperous have any idea.

dual whose gross income for 1923 was $5,000 or more. Gross income includes salaries, wages, and compensation for personal services rendered, and "gains, profits, and income derived from professions, vocations, trades, business, commerce, sales, or dealings in property, real or personal, or the transaction of any business carried on for profit, or gains or profits, and income derived from any source whatever." Net income is gross income less certain specified deductions for business expenses, losses, bad debts, contributions, etc.

Taxpayers may be divided into four general classes—the wage earner or salaried class, business professional and agricultural. All compensation for personal services received by a salaried employee, including salaries, commissions, bonuses, fees, pensions paid retired employees, and tips.

The gross income of the usual business consists of the gross profits on sales, together with incidental or outside operations or sources. The return must show the gross sales, purchases, and cost of goods sold. To reflect net income correctly in any business in which the production, purchase, or sale of merchandise is an income-producing factor, inventories are necessary at the beginning and end of each taxable year.

The lawyer, doctor, architect, author, dentist, clergyman, or other professional man must include all fees, salaries, and compensation for professional services.

The farmer is required to report as gross income all profits derived from the sale or exchange of farm products and livestock, whether produced on the farm or purchased and resold. The fair market value of groceries or merchandise exchanged for farm products must be included. Also, profits from renting a farm on the crop-share basis, and the rental and sale of farm lands.

CONCORD MAN HAS SOME OLD RELICS

J. B. Cooper is Possessor of Papers Printed Way Back in 1847.

J. B. Cooper of Concord is the possessor of some very interesting old documents which formerly belonged to his father, Armstrong Cooper. They include a weekly newspaper of the date of 1874 and two tax receipts which date back to 1859.

The tax receipts show that $37.23 was paid as taxes on about 400 acres of land east of Concord, which was owned by Mr. Cooper at that time. The taxes on this same land today is approximately $2000, but when the difference in taxes is noted the change in the valuation of the property should also be taken into consideration.

The newspaper in Mr. Cooper's possession is "The Prairie Argus," which was edited by T. Barlow, who was also an attorney at law with his offices on the west side of the square. Part of his work on the paper consisted of a poem which was over a column in length.

The paper is of four pages, the front page being made up of stories of fiction. No local items appear in the paper at all, the remainder of the paper being made up of Washington, D. C. news and advertisements. All advertisers stated that they would take country produce in lieu of cash for their wares, which included not only groceries, dry goods and furniture but any other articles that were for sale at that time. The Morgan House which is known more recently as the Park Hotel, the Jacksonville Female Academy and the Medical Department of Illinois College, were some of the advertisers. No prices were quoted except on patent medicines which were very prominently advertised.

WOULD IMPROVE SCHOOL BUILDINGS

Supt. Shafer Told Rotary Club About Building Needs—Col. Bullington Praised American Legion Work.

B. F. Shafer, superintendent of the schools of Jacksonville, made the principal talk at the Friday luncheon of the Rotary club. Mr. Shafer presented facts to show the need of improvements in the grade school buildings of this city and also data indicating that the school tax rate here is lower than in many other cities and school districts in the state.

Dr. A. H. Dolear, president of the club, also introduced as a speaker Col. J. J. Bullington of Belleville, commander of the American Legion, who briefly outlined the purposes of the Legion and the work that it is doing for ex-service men and for society. One of the greatest accomplishments of the Legion, Col. Bullington said, was the decisive stand taken early in its existence against radicalism.

Mr. Shafer made reference to the proud record of Jacksonville in these recent years and to what has been accomplished along various lines. He said that without the joy of accomplishment that there would be little worth while in life, as rewards come only to those individuals and groups who do things.

He mentioned the influence on the work of the splendid high school building Jacksonville has said that it was quite in contrast to the ward buildings. The speaker quoted a letter written by Mr. Booth, inspector for the state superintendent of public instruction, who visited all of the local school buildings and made a formal report on them. This report emphasizes the need either for new buildings or for complete rehabilitation so that the equipment may be in line with modern requirements, and present day educational methods.

The Revenue Question

The question of revenue for the work is of course a matter of great importance. It is not feasible, Mr. Shafer said, to attempt this work by making a small appropriation yearly from the general school fund, as on that basis it would take at least twenty years to accomplish the task. At one time the suggestion was made that the Jacksonville school district be enlarged to take in the territory surrounding the city and thus making a larger amount of property taxable for school purposes. This still could be done if the majority of people both in the city and in the territory proposed to annex should vote in favor of the proposal.

Still another means of raising funds is thru the issuance of bonds and Mr. Shafer said that if such authority was given that it would be many years before the bonding power of the school district was sufficient to make funds sufficient for the work.

The method which is commonly used to secure additional funds for school building purposes is by increasing the tax rate, which can be done up to the amount of $4 instead of $2.75, if such action is authorized by a vote of the people. As indicated, this has been done in a large number of cities.

In Other Districts

In discussing the question of school operation costs in some other cities and districts, Mr. Shafer said: "It is always helpful to know what other communities are doing with reference to a problem we have to face. This does not imply that we should follow their example. Conditions are never exactly reproduced. All that any city can do, and act intelligently, is to consider the facts in a given situation and then with the experience of others as well as those of its own, proceed to render a judgment."

"Recently a letter came to my office from the statistical clerk of the state superintendent's office. Quoting from this letter: 'We have a list of ninety-eight districts, most of which are levying three per cent for educational purposes and one per cent for building purposes.' Such places as the following are included in the list: Hoopston, Moline, East St. Louis, Glenview, Granite City, Kankakee, Naperville, Chicago Heights, Cicero, Oak Park, Rock Island, River Forest, Wilmette, Matteson, Charleston, Decatur, Kewanee, Waukegan, East Moline."

"Granite City of this list has a community high school. Chicago Heights, Glenview, Waukegan, Wilmette, East Moline, Cicero and Oak Park have township high schools. This means that their tax for school purposes is considerably more than four per cent and possibly six and seventy-five hundredths per cent."

Other Rates Quoted
Total tax rates and school tax rates were also quoted for a number of cities. The Jacksonville rate is $2.75 and the superintendent said that in Glenview, Chicago Heights, Granite City, River Forest, Matteson, East St. Louis, Kewanee, Charleston, Hoopston and Kankakee the school tax rate is $4.00.

In five of these cities named in addition to the general school tax rate, there is an additional township high school tax ranging from $1.50 to $2.75. The presentation of the situation was evidently heard with great interest by the club.

Other guests of the day, in addition to those mentioned, were: O. E. Eichhoff, Chicago; Representative B. L. Barber, Springfield; Dr. F. W. Barton, Belleville; Grant Hughes, Jacksonville. The club members were especially pleased by the presence of W. E. Sullivan, a member of the club, who has been absent from the meetings because of illness for about two months past.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

To say something worthy, to do something fine,
Grant, Heavenly Father, this longing of mine;
To help, not to hinder, each one I may see,
And do as I'd have them to do unto me.

To speak to the cheerless, to lift up the faint,
To share in some burden, or ease a complaint,
To show forth the Master each day that goes by—
If such be my mission, then blessed am I.

Forgetting by failures, regretting no loss,
But upward progressing to Christ and His cross,
In honor preferring all others to me,
Content in the place God would have me to be.

Thus would I press forward,
And on to the mark;
Of heavenly calling, from daylight till dark;
O then shall the New Year whatever my need
Be blessed, thrice blessed and happy indeed.

CHAPIN RESIDENT IS SUDDENLY STRICKEN

August Brockhouse Dies at Home Friday Afternoon, With Out Previous Illness.

August Brockhouse, a well known resident of Chapin community, died suddenly at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, two and a half miles north of that place. Coroner C. A. Rose was notified and went to the Brockhouse home, where he held an inquest late last night.

The deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brockhouse. Forty-three years ago he was married to Miss Caroline Perbix, who survives him, together with four sons and one daughter: Henry and George Brockhouse of Aranzville; Arthur Brockhouse of Joy Prairie; Luther Brockhouse of Denver, Col., and Mrs. Robert Nienhauser of Concord. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters, all residing in the vicinity of Chapin: George, Sam and Lewis, and the Misses Mary and Martha Brockhouse. Three children preceded the father in death.

Mr. Brockhouse was a member of the Chapin Lutheran church. He had resided in this state all his life, and was a well known and respected citizen of his community. Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

At the inquest held by Coroner C. A. Rose at the home of the deceased, 2 miles northwest of Chapin the jury found that death was due to a severe attack of indigestion. The jury consisted of John E. Alderson, foreman, Taylor Alderson, Arthur Nergenah, Walter Brockhouse, Wm. E. Nienhauser, and Ralph Withee.

Mrs. Brockhouse testified at the inquest that Mr. Brockhouse had complained of pains in his stomach in the afternoon and was preparing to go to bed when he called and she went to him at once, and discovering his serious condition called Dr. Smith but Mr. Brockhouse was dead when the physician arrived.

John Buruff was in the city from Murrayville yesterday.

Arizona Day By Day

By S. W. Nichols

504 South Stone Ave., Tucson, Ariz.

Dear Journal:

It is often said that the sons of great men fail to accomplish much in life and here we have a confirmation and refutation of the statement. Nearly every one has heard of the great railroad magnate, Julius Kruttschnitt, head of the mighty Southern Pacific system. He has two sons well known in this vicinity where one of them, Julius Jr., lives and where the other is well known.

Julius Jr. is a success and seems to inherit much of his eminent father's ability. He is connected with a smelting and refining company and is well known and prominent in many public enterprises in which he has inherited many of the qualities of his eminent father. I am told that his brother is rather inclined to be wild tho not a failure. I was told he is at present somewhere in the Philippines with the U. S. army.

Certain it is his illustrious father has wonderful ability and will rank with James Hill, and other men well known at the head in the business world. As nearly as I can ascertain it is the aim of the management of the Southern Pacific system to treat employees well and gain their good will which always pays.

President Obregon of Mexico is enduring the sting of ingratitude in a fearful manner just now. One of the strong men against him is Manuel Dieguez, a malevolent from way back. In 1904 he began his career in the employ of the mining camp at Cananea where to the foreman he proved a useful man Friday. Two years later he was prominent in riots at the same place when the seeds of revolt against the Diaz government were first planned. He vanished till 1910 when he led a small force in the Madero movement. He didn't get the rewards he expected and so when de la Huerta arose Dieguez espoused the cause of Carranza. He reaped a rich reward of money in that cause and was strongly opposed to Obregon and when the latter came into power he unwisely permitted such opponents as Dieguez to live and now he is being rewarded for his clemency by the man at the head of an armed force of between 3,000 and 4,000 men against the government.

Arizona's Grand Canyon has been the mecca for many thousands of tourists the past season. One day there were nine trains from Williams to Bright Angel and all were well loaded. Some of the visitors returned the same day while others remained a little longer to enjoy the astonishing spectacle.

At any rate it cannot be truthfully said that all sightseers seek the old world. The various western national parks and forests have attracted about two million travelers the past year. About 675,000 camp fires were built and people had a fine time generally. The major part traveled by automobile and the railroads took most of the remainder but a very few going with horses.

The old year was duly watched out and the new one welcomed by a number of gatherings here. The country club gave a costume cabaret ball for its members; the Elks had a masked ball for members and friends, and many other events took place. The country club and Elks offered prizes for the best costume. The Amphitheater Community assembled by families in one of the public school buildings, each family bringing a cake and all were massed and served with hot chocolate. Many other private parties were given and the whole city gave itself up to the festivities of the occasion.

I was deeply grieved by the career and downfall of M. M. Bludworth, formerly president of the First National bank of Tombstone. He was a bright and promising young man but somehow was unable to withstand the temptations to use the bank's funds unlawfully. The institution was closed for a while but Mrs. Costello, a very wealthy woman who was interested in the bank, came forward with the necessary funds to set it on its feet again. Bludworth's trial dragged along for two or more years but finally ended in a sentence of three years in a federal prison. The bank is going along all right.

A novel feature of Christmas cheer was a visit by kind hearted people to the long trains on the Southern Pacific passing through here the night before the glad holiday when all the children on board, regardless of color or previous condition of servitude, were treated to nuts and candy much to their delight.

The Southern Pacific did an enormous business during the holidays and had the satisfaction of knowing their trains were mostly on time. The road is making great preparations for the new year in the way of equipment and general betterments.

Tucson greatly needs a public building and were it not for the fact that retrenchment is the order of the day the city would doubtless be favored before long. The government owns a good plot of ground well located and sooner or later the building should come.

The postoffice now is inconveniently located but it is the best that can be done at present. The chamber of commerce and influential citizens are strongly urging the matter.

Tomatoes are beginning to be moved from the west coast and it is confidently expected that fully 2,500 car loads will be moved the present season and we all know that its freight that pays the bill.

The construction of the Roosevelt dam and the increased cultivation of land in the vicinity of Phoenix has caused that place to lose much of its popularity as a health resort as conditions are far too damp all about the place but it is compensated for by the great diversity of agricultural products.

A gentleman from the house went up there to spend Christmas and brought me an orange thirteen inches in circumference and said that while it was larger than the average it was by no means uncommon. A well known real estate dealer remarked to me recently that there were great temptations there to cheat the tenderfoot. He said the government had prepared a map of the localities showing where oranges would grow but not every one knows of it. He said that within a half mile of a productive farm the frost would not do well owing to frost but one not posted would never think of it. Cotton and all manner of fruits are produced in that locality now and the outlook is good. In the Postville district approximately 3,500 acres are planted in cotton and the owners of the crop are holding in hopes of a better market. Then in the alkali soil dates flourish while various citrus fruits are produced in good quantities.

A noted character, "Cyclone Bill," otherwise William E. Bweck has recently passed away. He segged two terms as justice of the peace but his fort was defending criminals in the same kind of a court and at this he was an adept in early days. He was not a licensed lawyer but he had a great deal of native wit and in his closing argument he gained the sobriquet of "Cyclone Bill."

He was naturally eloquent and it would be hard for any magistrate to decide against him and when he had won a case against a shrewd lawyer opposing it would fill him with delight and he would invite court, criminal and bar to the nearest saloon to celebrate.

One leg was about a foot shorter than the other and he used to have lots of fun showing up on his short understanding and then suddenly towering to more than six feet in height. One time when he went to a saloon for the usual refreshments after a successful trial he encountered a strange bartender and on his short leg ordered the drinks for the crowd. While the dispenser of the fluid was busy preparing the refreshments Bill straightened up and the man behind the glasses looked around in bewilderment and with an catn asked where was that little, sawed off runt was who had ordered the drinks.

A peculiar character, Gene Dought, blew into the city a day or two ago. He said he was 18 but didn't appear to be more than 12. He said his family died when he was quite young and since that time he has rustled for himself. He said he had visited nearly every state in the union making his way principally by lifts given him by good natured auto drivers. He is slightly crippled in both feet and one hand, the result of infantile paralysis when he was an infant.

Recently Satan has found a new kind of mischief for wicked boys in this city. They ride up to a street car when it is standing with the door open and pelt the motor-man with stale eggs. They dart away so rapidly that so far it has been impossible to apprehend any of them but if any are caught it will go hard with them.

The Tucson chamber of commerce has recently had prepared a map which will be of great value to tourists and of course it guides them thru this city. It begins at El Paso and goes thru Lordsburg, Tombstone, Bisbee, Benson, Florence, Tucson, Phoenix, Superior, Hila Bend, Yuma, Mexical, Jacumba and San Diego. Any who are contemplating a trip westward by private conveyance will do well to communicate with the Tucson chamber of commerce and procure a copy.

Tucson is feeling justly proud over the stage success of Ruth Stonejones who has risen to fame as a histrionic artist. Her company appeared here recently and great honor was paid the young lady.

An interesting case of grit and determination recently came to light here. A boy but 12 years old, son of very poor but honest parents, came to the city bent on having an education. He secured employment for a while that kept him but that gave out and greatly to his regret he had to leave school but he declares he is going to persevere. An effort is being made to induce the Kivians to take him up and see him thru.

Christmas didn't see the end of all good things. The men in camp were separately remembered new year and the children of the orphan's home were made to rejoice by generous gifts from different kind hearted people.

Scam, the great band leader and composer has set at rest many fairy tales about inspiration and all that. He says that a good tenderloin steak, French fried potatoes and bread and butter are the best preparation for him when he is to court the muses. After such a meal he has been inspired to do some of his best work.

William Henderson of Arkansas thought a fortune awaited him if once he could get to the Pacific coast and he started out with wife and five children. The terrible storms overtook them and they were compelled to lie by and shiver in their tent with hardly enough to keep souls and bodies together. J. L. Dougherty of Benson happened along, saw the

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN
 By Sister Mary
 (Unless otherwise specified, these recipes are planned for four persons.)
Sauerkraut Dishes
 Many people enjoy a dinner of sauerkraut once in a while. If the dish is cooked in the oven the unpleasant odor is somewhat curtailed.
 While raw cabbage is more easily digested and of greater food value than cooked cabbage, cabbage in any form is a wholesome, hearty food.
 These recipes may be a bit out of the ordinary and may help solve the eternal problem of what to eat.
 If weiners are not liked, spare-ribs can be substituted.
Sauerkraut and Dumplings
 Two pounds of kraut, 8 weiners, 1 cup flour, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder, milk to make a soft dough.
 Put kraut in a tightly covered kettle with water to cover. Cook slowly for two hours, adding water as necessary. Wash weiners and cut a tiny slice from each end. Add to kraut and cook an hour longer. Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder. Cut in milk to make a soft dough. Drop by teaspoonfuls on the kraut, cover tightly and cook 20 minutes. Serve at once.
 This dish provides starch in the dumplings, mineral salts in the kraut, protein and fat in the meat and adds bulk to the meal.
 A nourishing cream soup and a substantial dessert round out the menu. Brown or entire wheat bread should be used.
Sauerkraut and Potatoes
 One pound kraut, 4 potatoes, butter, salt and pepper, 1-4 cup cracker crumbs.
 Boil and mash potatoes. Season with salt, pepper and butter. Cook kraut for 30 minutes and drain. Put a layer of kraut in a buttered baking dish. Dot with bits of butter and cover with a layer of potatoes. Continue alternating layers of kraut and potatoes until all is used. There should be equal parts of kraut and potato. Cover with cracker crumbs and bake in a moderate oven for 45 minutes.
 This is another method for preparing kraut with potatoes. The potatoes rather alleviate the kraut flavor, making a really palatable dish.
Kraut and Potatoes II
 One tablespoon lard, 1 pint kraut, 2 cups seasoned mashed potatoes, buttered bread crumbs.
 Melt lard in a deep kettle, add kraut and cook for 30 minutes. Put kraut in a buttered baking dish, dot with butter and add a layer of seasoned mashed potatoes. Continue layer for layer of kraut and potatoes until all is used. Cover with buttered crumbs and bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

Pharmacists Call it "Joint-Ease" Because it's for Swollen, Sore, Painful, Creaky Joints Only

It took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subduing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the one remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and flesh and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, creaky, pain racked joints as good as new.

They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint-Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick, worked for years to perfect some low-priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people who have one or more joints that need helpful attention.

So, "Joint-Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful, creaky, distorted or stiff joint, whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck or finger and whether it is caused by rheumatism or something else.

Of course, it can't help but quickly put an end to such superficial ailments as lumbago, neuralgia, neuritis, aching muscles, stiffness in the side, crick in the neck or sore feet because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatever. Ask for a tube of "Joint-Ease."

You can use it several times in one evening for quick results; because it goes right through the skin with only a few seconds rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it starts right in to clean up all joint trouble.

All druggists dispense it daily for about 60 cents a tube. (adv.)

HOPPE OUTSCORED COCHRAN IN SECOND BLOCK OF MATCH

Champion Leading Challenger by Score of 1000 Points to 843

BOSTON, Jan. 11.—(A. P.)—Willie Hoppe, holder of the world's 18.2 ball line champion outscored Welker Cochran, challenger in the second block of their challenge match for the title here tonight and led the Los Angeles youth 1,000 points to 843 at the end of two nights' play.

The match, a 1,500 point contest will be concluded tomorrow night.

Altho the play at times was desultory and spotty at others, both champion and challenger rose to real heights. Cochran drew low score innings but his game seemed to improve as the match progressed. In one inning he ran 101 points and in another 135, the high run of the evening.

Hoppe broke 100 once, scoring 123 points in the twenty seventh inning. The champion ran out his 1,000 points tonight with an unfinished run of 24, leaving the balls strung along the right hand rail in good position for a gathering shot when the match reopens.

In his two long runs Cochran was unerring in his judgment of distance and speed and made brilliant shots which their very perfection made appear easy.

Hoppe after a good start struck a row of five balls in which he tallied only five points. Then with improved position play brilliant masses and close nursing he ran out the game.

Lawrence, Kansas, Jan. 11 — Kansas opened its Missouri Valley conference basketball season here tonight defeating Drake University 49 to 16.

DOUBLE HEADER AT D. P. GYM TONIGHT

I. C. Varsity Meets Shurtleff and Sophs and Juniors Play Interclass Tilt.

Tonight, at 7:50 in the David Prince gymnasium there will be a regular basketball test. The big game will be between the Illinois College and Shurtleff College teams at 8:30 and this game will be preceded by an interclass game between the Sophomore and Junior teams, beginning at 7:50.

The game with Shurtleff will be the second one for the Illinois team this season. On the other hand it will be the third game for the Shurtleff boys this week. On Monday night they met Lincoln College at Lincoln and lost 18 to 13 in a hard fought game. On Tuesday Wesleyan won from the weary Alton boys by a larger score on the Wesleyan floor.

Now the Baptist College five comes to mix with the Blue and White. Illinois won handily from Lincoln before the boys went home to eat Christmas turkey. Monday night Lincoln won from Shurtleff by a small margin. If the Illinois players have increased proportionately in skill since that time they should win from Shurtleff tonight. But you never can tell. Basketball is a funny game full of surprises and upsets.

The Illinois lineup to start will probably undergo little change from that of the Lincoln game. If any man falters there will be another on hand to step into his place. Rubendall, Beecher, Savage, Peters, Henry, Elder and Sides for an array of forward material, each anxious to show his mettle.

Capt. Dale, Walker, Wood, and Pittman are the quartette of centers.

Hoskins, J. Roberts, Struck, Fred Johnson, Petefish, J. Martin, Deatherage and Wells are the defensive men who aspire to the guard positions.

The probable starting lineups of the teams tonight are as follows:

Illinois—Rubendall and Savage, forwards; Dale, center; Hoskins and J. Roberts, guards; Shurtleff—Wright and Johnson, forwards; Blott, center; McGill and Hordate, guards.

Eliason (Washington and Jefferson) of Springfield, will officiate.

MANDELL-BERNSTEIN

BOUT ENDS IN DRAW

New York, Jan. 11 — Sammy Mandell, of Rockford, Illinois, and Jack Bernstein, of Yonkers, former holder of the junior lightweight title fought fifteen rounds to a draw in Madis Square Garden tonight.

Mandell broke his left hand in the fifth but fought bravely throughout the contest and many spectators believed he should have received the decision. Both boxers weighed 129½ pounds.

Billy Evans SAYS

Babe Ruth was voted the most valuable ball player in the American league last year. He was the unanimous choice of the baseball experts delegated to make the selection.

As Ruth goes, so go the Yankees, has long been an American League slogan in sizing up the New York Americans. It worked out very well in 1923.

Ruth prior to 1923 was the premier slugger of the majors. In other departments of play he did not shine to such an extent. Then came the big change. Perfect physical condition, plus a desire to come back after an ordinary year in 1922, made Ruth over entirely. Instead of being merely a slugger, he blossomed out into a great ball player in all departments.

Very often a certain jealousy prevails among the stars in any profession. It is typical of the stage and baseball is no exception.

Tris Speaker, famous manager of the Cleveland Indians, is not that type of a star. Speaker's success as a manager has largely been due to his method of handling players. They all look alike to him. He expects every man to do his best and no favors are shown the stars of his team.

Run out the ball is one of his pet theories. He lives up to it, for regardless of whether his effort is a weak tap to the pitcher or a drive off the fence he always travels at top speed.

"Last year Ruth was one of the greatest ball players of all time," remarked Speaker in discussing the home-run king. "Not only was he a marvel in the mechanical aspects of the game but his play was mentally flawless. Not once during the entire season did he make the slightest error in playing for our batters in the outfield. He beat us at least a half dozen games by superb play in the field, which was made possible by his proper shifting on the various batters of the Cleveland club."

Some compliment coming from so great an outfielder as Tris Speaker, who is a past master in playing opposing batters.

Jacksonville Defeated By Athens Quintet

Jacksonville High school was defeated by Athens on the David Prince floor last night by a score of 30 to 10. The game was much more interesting than the score indicates and Coach Mitchell's men showed a wonderful improvement in their play from what they put up in the Springfield game last week, and with more practice on basket shooting should develop into a winning combination before the season closes.

The game started off with a rush and the speed was kept up during the entire contest. The visitors put up a good game and once they had their eye on the basket they were mighty hard to stop. Both teams used the long-passing game and several long shots were registered. Hopper sank a beautiful one from past the center of the floor in the second quarter.

Every man on the Athens team broke into the scoring with Perkins, playing forward, leading by sinking six field goals and one free throw. For the locals, Hopper was the high scorer with four field goals and one free throw. Corbridge at running guard also scored a field basket, while Harrison had three free throws and Fitch, one, to their credit.

The first quarter was fast and furious and was featured by the close guarding of both teams and when the whistle blew the score stood 3 all. In the second quarter the visitors broke thru the local's defense and registered six field goals while the best J. H. S. could do was a long field basket by Hopper and two free throws by Harrison. The half ended with a score of 15 to 7 in favor of Athens.

Jacksonville failed to score in the third quarter while Athens rang up three more baskets and the score at the end of that period was 21 to 7. In the final quarter the visitors scored four field baskets and a free throw which came after Harrison failed to report to the scorer on entering the game. Corbridge sank a basket at a difficult angle and Hopper registered a free throw just before the game closed with the score 30 to 10.

TOURNAMENT TEAMS IN SEMI FINALS

Auburn vs. Williamsville and Athens Seconds vs. Greenville This Afternoon—Finals Tonight

Ashland, Ill., Jan. 11. (Special To The Journal)—In the semi-finals of the basketball tournament Saturday afternoon, Auburn will meet Williamsville and Athens Seconds will clash with Greenville, and the winners of this pair of games will meet at night in the final game of the tournament, which will be preceded by a curtain raiser which has not yet been arranged.

The two games played Thursday night were unequal matches. Auburn trimming New Berlin 25 to 7, and Franklin walking over Beardstown by taking the heavy end of a 29 to 2 score.

In the afternoon session today the Athens Seconds won over Virginia, 18 to 12 in a splendid contest. Joe Zelenas at forward and Wasselewski at guard were the outstanding performers for Athens while Davis of Virginia led in points for his school, having a credit of 2 field goals. Athens carried two full teams and switched them during the game.

Greenville then took the floor against Pleasant Plains and was returned winner by a 24 to 13 score. Pate was high Greenville man with six field goals and one free throw, shooting accurately from all difficult positions. Mounce of Pleasant Plains scored 11 of their 13 points.

In the final tilt of the afternoon Auburn defeated Petersburg by 21 to 17 in one of the hottest contests staged up to that time. Petersburg led all the way to the last 5 or 6 minutes of play, the score at the end of the half being 14 to 10, Petersburg. Keltner was by far the outstanding performer of Auburn, who entered the game under a handicap on account of the injury to Center Copping in last night's game. Copping suffered a sprained ankle but it is believed that he will be able to get into part of the game tomorrow afternoon. Keltner was credited with 12 points for Auburn while Dawson at center showed best for Petersburg.

The first game of this evening proved to be the star game of the series when Franklin took the lead from Williamsville and led most of the way, only to lose in the end by 16 to 15 when Williamsville scored a free throw.

The Light Brigade of Athens then came back against Ashland and proved their rights to consideration by capturing the tilt, 30 to 23. Wasselewski made 14 of the Athens points. Shivers of Ashland exhibited wonderful prowess in accurate basket shooting.

The final tilt belonged to Greenville all the way, scoring 26 points to 8 for Tallula.

Summary

Thursday night: Auburn 25; New Berlin 7; Franklin 29; Beardstown 2.

Friday afternoon: Athens Seconds 18, Virginia 12; Greenville

MEREDOSIA MEETS ROUTT HI TONIGHT

Meredosia High comes this evening to Liberty Hall as the foe of Routt High on the basketball floor, the game beginning at 8 o'clock sharp.

Routt has been going good this season, their only defeat being at the hands of Chanderiville on the foreign floor on last Saturday night. The games as mapped out for the present season of the local lads make an exceedingly strenuous schedule and the boys realize that they will have to exert themselves during the whole season if they wish to have a creditable showing at the close of the winter's schedule. From the showings made by Routt in their strenuous practice during the week it is highly probable that practically the same men will start the game as in the previous contest.

Meredosia has a good past record and has this season succeeded in downing Chapin High. The visitors for tonight have always proven rather a tough proposition on the floor in previous tournaments in Jacksonville and the East Enders are imbued with the idea that the game will not be presented to them this evening on a silver platter, and furthermore, in spite of the fact that they will as usual try every minute to annex the game, they are still unwilling to make any strong prophecy as to the final outcome.

Tickets may be secured from any of the Routt students or from the manager at the school.

ILLINOIS QUINTET MEETS OHIO TONIGHT

URBANA, Ill., Jan. 11.—Coach Craig Ruby and nine of his Illinois basketball players left here tonight on the trip which will settle for the time being Illinois title claims. The Illinois team is bent on showing in the games at Ohio State tomorrow night and at Michigan Monday that its defeat at Minnesota last week was a fluke and that should be regarded as a hearty contender for the Big Ten title.

The nine men making the trip are Captain Henry Potter and players Roetger, Stillwell, Poppen, Maurer, Britton, Parker, Helsing and Haines.

It is considered likely here that the board might change the system of the past, that of having the directors of athletics serve as head football coach, and elect a coach other than the director.

George D. Bresnahan, assistant director and track coach, looms as a likely possibility for the position while a host of men are thought to be possibilities for the coaching position the board denies that any action has been taken or that the matter has even been given formal consideration.

THE CARE OF ANIMALS

The following statement in regard to care of animals during cold weather was issued yesterday by Humane Officer Reid. We wish to call attention to the public of the care of animals especially during the cold months. We find a great many poor old horses being sold or given to people who do not have means to feed them properly. They are then starved and worked until they drop in their tracks. We had a case where a horse fell and was so weak it could not get up, and therefore was killed and put out of misery, this happened in a down town street.

Old horses having bad teeth should be given ground feed during the winter and a good hot bran mash mixed with oats twice a week will help them and cost no more in the end.

Any one knowing of ill treatment or neglect of animals should notify Officer Reid, by calling Phone No. 577W.

Attention is also called to school children who drive in to school and leave their horses tied in the same place all day regardless of the weather. We have had reports of some standing from 8
a. m. to 5 p. m. Section of the state law requires shelter during stormy weather.

Membership in the Humane society can be obtained from the following persons, Officer Reid.
Dr. Scott, W. A. Jenkinson, Miss Florence Ward.

DUN'S REPORT
WILL SAY TODAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Dun's
tomorrow will say:

With January about half over no unusual or unexpected trend has appeared in business. Revied from the year-end let down has come in most industries, tho in varying measure and the principal steel producer is operating better than an 80 per cent rate.

Yet cotton goods manufacture is still restricted there being a lack of demand at prices mills can profitably accept, and more or less curtailment also continues at some other textile plants.

A moderate easing of prices has occurred in certain markets where buying has not developed fully and the movement of wholesale quotations, if chiefly in an upward direction does show largest excesses of advances that was seen a year ago.

"The situation then, is not a few instances, disclosed active forward purchasing, whereas the policy now is mainly one of limiting commitments to immediate or nearby needs.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

HIGHER PRICES RULE
ON STOCK MARKET

FINANCIAL.
Total stock sales 1,172,300
shares.
Twenty industrials averaged 97.47; net gain .27.
High 1923: 105.38; low
85.76.
Twenty railroads averaged 85.49; net loss .22.
High 1923: 90.51; low 79.53

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Encouraged by the decision of the house Republicans to take early action on the tax reduction bill professional operators resumed their campaign for higher prices in today's stock market, the fifth consecutive million share session. Industrials retained leadership of the upward movement. Heavy profit-taking took place in the railroad shares, particularly the low priced issues, on the circulation of reports that Senator Smith newly elected chairman of the senate committee on interstate commerce committee favored prompt action on General Electric shares, particularly on agriculture.

Steel shares moved within narrow and irregular limits. United States Steel common again crossed par but fell back later to 99 1/2 where it was up 1/4 on the day;
considerable interest was aroused by the report that the floating supply of this stock in brokers' hands on December 31 was 1,081-618 shares or 20.62 per cent, a new low record. At the end of 1922 the total stock held by brokers was 1,335,864 shares or 26.28 per cent of the outstanding amount.

Temporary burst of strength in the equipment group sent Baldwin up to 127 1/2 but it slipped back latter to 126 1/2 for a small fractional gain on the day. General Electric duplicated its record price of 209 1/2 closing slightly below that figure for a net gain of 2 1/2; oil shares continued to reflect the improvement in that industry as indicated by a steady reduction in crudeoutput and higher commodity prices.

Sporadic attempts were made during the day by the short interests to unsettle the list by offering stocks freely on the theory that the conditions of the market warranted at least a technical reaction, but they failed to make much headway except in a few issues like American Woolen, Tobacco products, iron products and American Sunnata Tobacco all

ILLWOCO STAFF HAS BEEN CHOSEN

"Who is the most popular girl at the Illinois Woman's college?" This was one of the five questions put to the vote of the student body at chapter meeting Friday morning in the social rooms.

The other four questions had the same beginning: "Who is the most..." and ended respectively with "Beautiful," "Clever," "Athletic," and "Intellectual."

Everybody is wondering "who?" and everybody is subscribing to the Illwoco, the college annual, which alone can divulge the secret, for it will carry full page pictures of the five young women selected by their fellow students to bear these titles of honors.

The annual staff which follows announced that the Illwoco will be finished and on sale about the first of May, and every effort is being made to make it one of the most finished and successful of college annual products.

SUIT REMANDED FOR NEW TRIAL

Arnold vs. Wilson Collision Case Will Probably be Tried Fourth Time in Local Court.

Among the decisions handed down by the appellate court recently were two Morgan county cases, one of which has been the cause of considerable litigation. This is the case of A. D. Arnold vs. Lewis N. Wilson, which is the result of an accident which occurred on the hard road east of the city when Mr. Wilson's automobile and several horses belonging to Mr. Arnold collided resulting in the damaging of the car and the death of two horses and the injury of another.

This case has been tried three times, twice in justice courts and once in the circuit court. Mr. Arnold winning each time, and is now remanded to the circuit court for a new trial. Two hundred dollars was awarded Mr. Arnold in the circuit court by the jury. He was represented by Walter W. Wright and Wilson's attorneys were Carl E. Robinson and William T. Wilson.

Following the decision of the jury in the circuit court the attorneys for the defense appealed to the appellate court contending that the jury had been erroneously instructed and the finding of the higher court resulted in the case being sent back to the circuit court.

The second case to be sent back to the circuit court for a new trial is that of W. J. Edolbrook vs. Alva Rexroat, over a promissory note, which was remanded with directions to overrule the demurrer. In this case the plaintiff demurred to a plea of the defendant and Judge Burton sustained the demurrer. The case was taken to the appellate court for a decision upon this point and resulted in the remanding of the case to the circuit court.
